

Go Get It Events partners with Ikea at the Modern Bride Trendleader event in Manhattan

Go Get It Events (www.GoGetIt.org), winners of the coveted Trendsetter Award in 2007, joined the ranks of bridal favorites, such as Ralph Lauren, CeCi New York and Michael George as one of the premier wedding specialists at the "Trendleader on Tour" Event at Touch NYC Nightclub.

On October 21, GGIE partnered with Ikea Home Furnishings for one of their two booth areas, showcasing their romantic room decor. Rose petals, candles and the "little touches" that make their decorations so unique were incorporated into the room.

"We were thrilled to be one of the few Trendsetter award winners who were invited to this event", owner Jenifour Jones revealed. "There was such great talent in the room and brides really came out in droves to experience this."

Go Get It Events was on hand to meet and greet with over 1300 brides and grooms. Couples had a chance to meet and talk with president Jenifour and her team about planning destination and local weddings while sampling their homemade destination-inspired Italian cocktails.

MOR Cosmetics and Saffron James provided candles, soaps, oils, lotions and fragrances for the heavenly gift basket giveaway.

GGIE's new travel partner, Elena Borrero Travel LLC, was on hand to offer travel and honeymoon advice and guidance.

Go Get It Events & Weddings plan fabulous local and destination weddings while assisting couple's with all travel related aspects, from out-of-town guest rooms to planning the honeymoon.
